

Poe Short Story Report

Title Berenice

Author Edgar Allen Poe

Name Laura

Date 10/25/06

Fill in the table. Put an 'X' where you like.

the story was enjoyable	    X    	the story was not enjoyable
the story was fun to read	    X    	the story was not so fun to read the story was exciting	    X    	The story was not exciting
the story was easy to read	    X    	the story was difficult to read the story was easy to understand	    X    	the story was difficult to understand the characters were interesting	    X    	the characters were not so interesting
the vocabulary was easy	    X    	the vocabulary was difficult
I enjoyed it very much	    X    	I didn't like the story.

What grade do you give the book (out of 10)? 7

I would like to read it again sometime? YES

My impression of the book.

Finish these sentences:

This story was as humorous as it was morbid.

My favorite character was Egaeus because he was fascinated by Berenice's teeth

I didn't like that it was not as scary as the review stated, because I was ready to have a Poe experience like Stacy ;)

The plot was about a mentally ill man who becomes so fixated with the teeth of his betrothed (who also happens to be his cousin, an epileptic), that he extracts her teeth...Did I say too much – spoil it for any who care to read it?

I really liked that the subject matter was about teeth because I am a bit neurotic/fascinated by teeth.

Any other comments:

Sorry, do not care to get extra credit ☺